Pillars that should be shaken down-caterpillars.

The misery felt by the child who couldn't go to the picoic, is nothing to that of the one who has been to it.

"Do you like codfish balls, Mr. Wiggins?" Mr. Wiggios, hesitatingly-"I really don't know; I don't recollect attending one."

"I think I have seen you before, sir. Are you not Owen Smith?" "Oh, yes, I'm owin' Smith, and owin' Jones, and owin' Brown, and owiu' everybody. A philosopher asserts that the reason why ladies' teeth decay sooner than gentlemen's is because of the friction of the tongue and the sweatness of the lips. What is the difference between spermaceti and a schoolboy's howl? One is the wax produced by the whale, and the other is the wail produced by the wbacks. "Now, then, children," said a parish schoolmistress showing her children off on examina-tion day: "Who loves all men?" "You,

A fine opportunity for a poor man who can't afford to have pies on Sunday, to get them cheap.

Curious answers often come out in examination for the civil service. The word "inheri tance" occurring in a page of reading, the examiner interrogated the youngster: "What is inheritance?" "Patrimony." "What is patrimony?" "Something left by a father." "What would you call it if left by a mother?" "Matri-

A Detroit mother sent her boy to the store the other day to get her a linen dress, and he returned with fourteen yards of black cambric. "I told you to get linen!" she exclaimed, standing aghast. "I know it, but this is cheaper, and the clerk said that if any of us should happen to die you'd have a mourning dress in the house!" was the cool reply.

A farmer on the road between Charlton and Worcester, Mass., having been terribly annoyed by drummers, put up a sign: "No sewing machines wanted here. Got one." It was to use; the next drummer wanted to see the machine, "and perdaps he'd hitch up a trade." So the farmer put up: "Got the small pox here." That worked well for a little while, That worked well for a little while, but then came along a drummer frightfully pitted with the small-pox, who smilingly said:--"Seciu' you've got it bad here they've put me on this route.

LEGAL RIGHTS OF CATS. - Cats are a legal nuisance. This is, they have a legal right to live among us, and no one seems to question their right to make all the noise and disturbance they please. All people can do is to express disapprobation, and throw now and then, valuables after them from the bedroom window. The census of cats would astonish people more than their pocturnal councils do. Some people are accustomed to these debates, and don't even wish it wasn't naughty to swear when the performance begins. It is only a force of habit with these people to sleep during the thunderstorm of Fourth of July cannon, It is not in behalf of these people that the writer speaks. It is in the interest of those who do not have an ear for the music that cats furnish. There are hundreds of such people in town. Not more than one-tenth of them have gone to the water-

From nine to thirty-seven cats usually congregate under a bed-room window and begin their exercises just as the inhabitant of that room begins to feel oblivious to ail around him. He is suddenly brought to consciousness by the agonizing screeches of the council of cats. Swearing does no good. Old boots and soap dishes are not much better. Cats have a faculty of dodging all missiles thrown at them. They never fail, either, to come right back under your window again as soon as you get nicely covered up and renew their deliberations. Throwing water or coal at them is useless. They are not afraid of water nor terrified at showers of coal. The gentle "tabbie" and the docile FISH DEALERS.

je 25-1m Comm'r. of Accounts. Questions by a countryman. I say, young man, can you tell me where Green's Notion House is?

Answer. Yes, sir; right here; 76 King street. Countryman. Is this the Spectacle Depot for those celebrated Crystal Lense Spectacles, at 25 cente? Clerk. Yes, air, and I shall be pleased to show them. o you.

Countryman. I saw them advertised, and concluded that it was a humbug, but the newspapers have continued to puff them up, so that I thought I would invest, even if I should be humbugged. Clerk. Let me ascertain the range of your eye by our new process. Now I have it; please try this pair on. Countryman. My dear sir, they are superb!

Seeing is believing; they suit me exactly. I never had a pair at any price to suit me as well. I am delighted, and will recommend your Crystal Lense Spectacles, at twenty-five cents, to everybody. HARDWARE, CUTLERY
